Re: UPTHEGROVE v. BARTOW, ET AL.
CASE #16CV424

Dear Judge Stadtmueller:

I am writing because you issued an order staying the deadlines in this case with the requirement that a stipulation for dismissal be filed by February 28, 2017 as the parties had agreed to settle out of court. I signed a settlement agreement and stipulation for dismissal on February 2, 2017, and the defendants' counsel said that I would receive my settlement check within two weeks. It has now been 18 days and I have not received the settlement check. I do not know what the delay is about, and I don't want to be held liable if the defendants' counsel fails to timely file the stipulation for dismissal which cannot happen until I receive the settlement check.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Samuel Upthegrove,
Plaintiff, pro se
